Young Mandela The Revolutionary Years

Young Mandela is an interesting study of the life of Nelson Mandela leading up to the time of his imprisonment. Of course I had heard of Mandela as the first African president of post-Apartheid South Africa, but I was unaware of who he truly was and why his liberation from prison was such a big deal.

Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela (/məˈnɛlə/; Xhosa: [xolĩʔaʔa mandɛːla]; 18 July 1918 – 5 December 2013) was a South African anti-apartheid revolutionary, political leader, and philanthropist who served as President of South Africa from 1994 to 1999.

Nelson Mandela - Wikipedia

"A revolutionary never dies," he told me, for anyone who risks his own life for the oppressed and the poor, will live as long as there are hopeless people in this world. I believe that the true magnitude of who Nelson Mandela was will not be wholly understood for perhaps another hundred years. My greatest fear is that his image will be ...
